

Statement of participation

Jay Bragg

has completed the free course including any mandatory tests for:

Children's rights

This 1-hour free course examined general issues surrounding children's rights and looked at the implications of seeing children as citizens.

Issue date: 23 June 2020

www.open.edu/openlearn

This statement does not imply the award of credit points nor the conferment of a University Qualification.
This statement confirms that this free course and all mandatory tests were passed by the learner.

Please go to the course on OpenLearn for full details:

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/people-politics-law/politics-policy-people/sociology/childrens-rights/content-section-0>

COURSE CODE: D218_5

Children's rights

<https://www.open.edu/openlearn/people-politics-law/politics-policy-people/sociology/childrens-rights/content-section-0>

Course summary

How do children fit in to our society? This free course will help you to understand the issues surrounding children's rights as well as examining the implications of seeing children as citizens. You will also explore the meaning of childhood and analyse children's needs.

Learning outcomes

By completing this course, the learner should be able to:

- define the broad issue of children as citizens.

Completed study

The learner has completed the following:

Section 1

Children's rights: general issues

Section 2

Conclusion